Coin Story:

The Rat may be the smallest zodiac, but its clever and charming ways won it the first spot in the Chinese lunar calendar. There's always something brewing in the Rat's razor-sharp mind. These enterprising individuals are incredibly curious and quick to ferret out an opportunity. They can be rather forward, but their honest and candid ways put everyone at ease. Rat people are remarkably easy to get along with. They are bright, fun loving, and care deeply about the people in their lives. Rat people succeed at virtually everything they do, but business is where they truly shine. They can strategize and stretch finances like no other. If you receive an extravagant gift from a Rat, know that you are cherished and prized indeed! An original and prestigious gift for that special Rat person in your life, or any newborn due this year—between January 25, 2020 and February 11, 2021.
